Celebrate fall at the National Arboretum's Chinese Moon Festival!

This year the festival features the beauty of the Chrysanthemum Moon with activities for all ages. Bring your children for special children's crafts and garden adventures — sample authentic Chinese refreshments — register for door prizes — participate in a variety of activities:

- ❖ Attend Chinese dance performances and take lessons
- ❖ Enjoy a display of unusual varieties of chrysanthemums and learn about them from our experts
- ❖ Make a special after hours visit to the National Bonsai & Penjing Museum and view the Chrysanthemum Moon exhibit
- ❖ Meet Chinese scholars' rocks expert Kemin Hu who will answer questions and sign copies of her book

View the Full Moon at the historic Capitol Columns while listening to a Chinese children's choir and enjoying traditional moon cakes.

Register early—space is limited!

Admission: $20/adult; $10/child (age 16 or under)
Registration information available by calling (202) 245-4521 or at <http://www.usna.usda.gov/Education/events.html>

The Chinese Moon Festival is one of the cultural activities held in support of the proposed Classical Chinese Garden at the U.S. National Arboretum.
