The U.S. National Arboretum is open to visitors every weekday from 1 - 5 PM and weekends 8 AM - 5 PM.

Things to Know
- R Street Gate is open to cars and pedestrians 1 - 2 PM weekdays and 8 AM - 5 PM weekends. From 2 - 5 PM on weekdays, the R Street Gate is pedestrian only.
- Gate at 3501 NY Ave is open to cars whenever the Arboretum is open.
- The National Bonsai & Penjing Museum and Administration Building/Visitor Center are currently closed.
- Restroom facilities are available in the Friendship Garden’s Arbor House, the Asian Collection, and in Lot B.
- There is limited access to water for bottle refills only. No food vending is available at this time.
- Trash collection is limited; pack it in and out.
- Fern Valley and the Washington Youth Garden are currently closed.

Protect the Plants
- Do not enter areas that are closed.
- Do not enter garden beds.
- Do not enter wooded areas.
- Do not pick flowers.
- Do not climb trees.

Protect Yourself and Others
- Keep six feet between you and others.
- Avoid an area if it looks busy.
- Wear a mask, especially in the restrooms.
- Wash your hands regularly with soap and water or sanitizer.
- Visit on another day if you are unwell.
The U.S. National Arboretum is open to visitors every weekday from 1 - 5 PM and weekends 8 AM - 5 PM.

Take a picture of this sign for reference!