

The U.S. National Arboretum is open to visitors Monday, Wednesday, and Friday from 1 - 5 PM.

Things to Know

- Car access is only available from the New York Avenue entrance. Visitors arriving on bike or foot should enter via the R Street NE gate.
- To ensure social distancing, there will be a limit of 200 cars allowed on the grounds at one time. You may need to wait to enter the Arboretum.
- Come prepared to walk. The majority of the roads on the grounds are closed to vehicular traffic.
- All buildings, including the National Bonsai & Penjing museum, are closed.
- Restroom facilities are extremely limited. Maps in the parking lots will indicate their locations.
- There is no access to water or food services. Trash collection is limited; pack it in and pack it out.
- The Asian Collections, National Herb Garden, Fern Valley, and the Washington Youth Garden are currently closed.

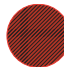

Protect the Plants

- Do not enter areas that are closed.
- Do not enter garden beds.
- Do not enter wooded areas.
- Do not pick flowers.
- Do not climb trees.

Protect Yourself and Others

- Keep six feet between you and others.
- Avoid an area if it looks busy.
- Wear a mask, especially in the restrooms.
- Wash your hands regularly with soap and water or sanitizer.
- Do not climb trees.

The U.S. National Arboretum is open to visitors Monday, Wednesday, and Friday from 1 - 5 PM.

	Area Closed		Pedestrians Only
	Parking		Vehicular Access
	Restroom	*Please note that the two locations are about a mile apart.

